REMARKS.

In our last annual report we called attention to the fact that taxes were and would continue to be high for many years to come owing to conditions brought about by the increased cost of labor and material, which has practically trebled in the past five or six years. These conditions must be met each year, they are the aftermath of the war, and until prices are once more brought back to the old basis we must meet the obligations as good citizens.

We must also bear in mind that the many improvements, which have been brought about, such as electric lights, hydrant service, equipment for fire protection, improved roads and stronger bridges, our health department, better school buildings and schools, all call for appropriations each year in order that the efficiency of each may be properly maintained.

Nearly all of our appropriations have been overdrawn, but it was unavoidable. One instance may be cited in that of our roads where washouts occurred in both the last spring and fall where the work had to be done over again.

At this time we wish to state that in Mr. Knight we consider that the town has an able, efficient and economical road commissioner, one who is centrally located and honest in the performance of his duties. In his report he has submitted for your consideration a report of his doings during the past year, and made certain recommendations which should be considered.

The warrant for the town meeting carries many articles for the raising of money. These should receive your careful consideration, and while we advise caution we would say avoid extremes.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES H. WALKER,

HARRY H. COOK,

GEORGE L. TREFETHEN,

needs of the several schools, and as to other matters pertaining to the public health of the district at this time. As it is I will have to leave it to the citizens to judge of the work done during the past year by the statistics herewith presented, which have been compiled from the records of the office.

Respectfully submitted,

LAURA BAXTER,

REPORT OF THE HEALTH OFFICER

Gentlemen:—

The Health Officer has the honor to submit to you the first annual report of the health department for the year ending February 1, 1921.

Scarlet Fever.....	7

NUISANCES

A large part of the work has been the abatement of nuisances. Cesspools have been rebuilt or constructed and a number of septic tanks have been installed.

Further improvement might be made of the construction of additional sewers.

In the last year Miss Petrie, the District Nurse, has been of great assistance to the Health Department.

Respectfully submitted,

Public Health Officer.

REPORT OF ROAD COMMISSIONER

ROADS AND BRIDGES

Our roads should receive more consideration, especially the question of drainage and foundation.

The heavy trucks of ten ton or more using the country roads on the outskirts of the town, break down many of the causeways.

Some of the stone causeways hold, but the pipe and wooden causeways that were built for a load of two ton, cannot stand the heavy trucking of today. The heavy trucks also calls for stronger bridges.

The heavy rains of the season did considerable damage to the hills in nearly all the gravel roads, the Dennett Brave boat Harbor, and the Betty Welch road were washed out badly, and required considerable outlay to make them passable.

The Wilson, Lewis, Chauncle Creek, and Cutts Island roads, were put in very good shape, and stood the season remarkably well.

Mr. Thaxtor and other residents, made liberal contributions, toward the repairs of Cutts Island road.

The Manson and Norton and part of the Haley Road, were surfaced with the road machine, but owing to the clay formation of the soil and the heavy rains, the parts that were not graveled, soon became impassable. The cost of transportation of suitable material, makes it impossible to surface part of our roads. The Pochontas, Norton and Martin roads received a great deal of heavy trucking and required considerable outlay during the season.

The Brave Boat Harbor road, Bartlett, Stevenson and Eliot neck roads, are badly in need of repair.

The Stevenson and Eliot Neck road could be repaired with small expense. The Eliot Neck road has new corrugated iron causeways, which will easily take care of the drainage.

Gravel can be obtained in Eliot, or at the Boston & Maine pit, on the Stevenson road. The cost of transportation would not be large from either place.

The Brave Boat Harbor and Bartlett roads would be rather expensive as there is not any suitable material for repairing near, in fact there is not any gravel in that part of the town.

The Navy Yard furnished all the material for the rebuilding of Government street. This enabled the town to make the much needed repairs at a very small expenditure.

Respectfully submitted,

S. P. KNIGHT,

Road Commissioner.

Report of the Superintendent of Schools.

To the Superintending School Committee of Kittery:

I take pleasure in submitting to you the report of a successful school year. There is in the town of Kittery, and there should be in every town, a growing appreciation of the value of education. America has always believed in the education of all its people but within the past few years the true value of education has become more and more appreciated.

We now find ourselves, as the result of the World War, placed in the "lime light". Other nations of the world are looking to the United States for guidance in establishing a government that can endure, a social system that can absorb a foreign element without being lowered and a commercial spirit which can create wealth enough to pay the debts of the world. There is but one agency which has the opportunity of reaching all of the people and preparing them to do their part in making this nation measure up to its opportunity and that agency is the school. The church can and will do much but very many are not brought within its influence. In the case of the school, none are neglected and few escape. Our school system is the bridge whereby we may pass from anarchy to democracy, from an industrial life like that of China to that of our country. In fact one of the chief differences between China and Japan or between Russia and the United States is the difference in education.

Looked at either from the standpoint of the nation or of the individual, there is no matter of public concern so important to the town of Kittery or to any other town, as its schools. Good roads are important, good bridges are desirable, street lights, a fire department etc. are valuable assets to a town, but the first and foremost consideration of any town should be the education of its children. If this is done the other things will follow for an educated people will not only demand modern conditions but will be able to produce wealth to pay for them.

That the people of Kittery realize the importance of their schools, is shown by the generous appropriations made last year. I trust that the tax payers of Kittery will realize that the money which is used in the education of their children is placed in the best possible investment.

Progress within our schools during the past year has been as good as could be reasonably expected. Our schools are all very large, 649 pupils being registered during the year. This gives an average of a little over 40 pupils for each teacher. Since the opening of the fall term the numbers have fallen off a little and it looks now as though the high point has already been passed. This dropping off, however, has not been evenly distributed throughout all the schools. At Kittery Point the schools are quite a little smaller than last year while at the Wentworth and Dennett schools there are 21 more pupils registered during the last fall than during any time during or since the war.

At the beginning of the spring term the pupils who had been attending school at Armory Hall were transferred to the Austin school, thus doing away with the Armory Hall school. It is a very unusual coincidence that every teacher who taught in town last year, with the exception of one who left to be married, returned, either to the same or another school in Kittery this year. By retaining the same teachers, much time was saved since the teachers were already familiar with the schools and did not have to spend time getting acquainted. Our teachers are all working hard and progress is being made.

I have spent a great deal of time in examining the work being done and comparing it with the standards of other towns, and I am able to report that the work being done in Kittery compares very favorably with that done in other places. I am of the opinion that an eight grade system can and should be adopted within the next few years, thus eliminating one grade.

A glance at the financial statement will show that the era of high prices has not yet passed. In fact everything connected with our schools has cost more this year than ever before. The greatest increase in expense has been for fuel. For three years previous to this our fuel has cost between fifteen and sixteen hundred dollars. This year it has cost $3,266.30. This increase is partly due to the fact that a large bill was paid this year which should have been presented last year. This increase in the cost of fuel, together with the fact that our apportionment from the state was $403.26 less than last year, accounts for the large overdraft in our common school account.

The school committee has figured very carefully on the appropriations needed for another year. The weekly payroll of our teachers is now $427.50 per week. At this rate the cost of instruction for the coming year will be $11,780. If we figure the cost of fuel, janitor services and transportation the same as last year and pay our overdraft, the total cost will be $20,135.21. If we get the same amount from the state as was received this year, the town will need to appropriate $15,129. It seems as though the bill for fuel should be less next year. I believe that the least amount which should be appropriated is $14,000.

The chances of reducing the cost of our schools does not look very hopeful. I doubt very much if the cost of instruction or of janitor services can be reduced. It is true that wages are being lowered in some lines of work but conditions are different in the case of teachers. Teachers' wages did not go up for more than a year after the advance in most other lines of work. It is claimed that many of the factory workers, after accepting a cut in wages of  $22\frac{1}{2}$  per cent., are still getting 100 per cent. more than they did in 1914, while our teachers are getting 80 per cent. more.

But the principal reason why we cannot reduce teachers' wages is that teachers cannot be hired at low wages. Teachers are still very scarce and will continue to be scarce for several years. The state requirements are such that it is not now possible to employ as a teacher any person who is willing to attempt teaching. While some who left the profession a few years ago, have returned, very many of them are permanently out of the work and new recruits are not coming forward to take their places. It is interesting to note that of the sixteen teachers now teaching in town, only five were teaching in Kittery two years ago. Eleven recruits have had to be found. Of this number Kittery has furnished only one beginner. Seven have been borrowed from other towns and three are teachers who have returned to the work after having once retired. Other towns are doing the same thing. The supply of retired teachers is practically exhausted and when everyone depends on borrowing from his neighbors, without furnishing any new material the end of the supply must soon be met. The only remedy is to make teachers' wages so attractive that our brightest girls will prepare themselves for teaching. So far as I know Kittery does not now have more than one or possibly two girls who are in training or normal school.

The appropriation for text books and supplies has been quite heavily overdrawn. Of the amount of money used this year about $375 has gone for paper and small supplies, $114 has been paid for wall maps and $95 for reference books. New geographys have been supplied in grades eight and nine at an expense of about $150. The old books were completely worn out. We have 649 pupils. Each pupil needs on the average, five books during the year. The average cost of these books is about 75 cents and the life of a book is not more than five years. This means that at least $500 worth of new books must be bought each year to take the place of worn out ones. During the past few years several new pupils have moved to town so that we have been obliged to not only replace worn out books but to purchase several sets of new books. The price of paper has dropped a little recently and we are better supplied with wall maps than last year. I think that we can get along this year with $700. Since we have an overdraft of $294.52, an appropriation of $1,000 should be made.

The appropriation for maintenance should be the same as last year.

So much has been said, in previous reports and in the papers, regarding the need of a new building in the Wentworth district that I will not discuss that matter here. It should be borne in mind that children who attend the Wentworth and Dennett schools cannot receive a square deal under existing conditions. I urgently recommend that plans be made for building in 1922, if possible.

In conclusion I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to the members of the school committee, teachers, pupils and parents, for the excellent spirit of cooperation which has been shown during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of the Principal of Traip Academy.

Kittery, Maine, February 8, 1921.

Trustees, Robert W. Traip Academy:

Gentlemen: I herewith submit to you and to the citizens of the Town of Kittery, my third report as principal of Robert W. Traip Academy.

A remarkable instance this year, as compared with last year, and one worth noting, is that our entering class is large, there being forty-three in number. All of these are with us at the present time, none having left school as has been the case in other years. One or two students left at the very beginning of the year; but in each case the period of attendance was too short to number them as members of the school. Two boys, members of the Sophomore class were transferred, one to Portsmouth High School; the other to the Baltimore, Maryland, High School. Other than these, we have the same number of students that we started with in September. Our enrollment was then ninety-one. At present it is eighty-nine.

For teachers this year we have Mr. Morse still with us at the head of our Commercial Department. We are fortunate in this; and were it not for the limitations placed upon us by time and equipment, I believe that we could fit our boys and girls for business as well as any business school in the country. As it is, they are receiving splendid training. Miss Ada C. Langley, a graduate of New Hampshire State College, and a teacher of four terms experience, one in the Nute High School of Milton, New Hampshire, and one year in the Medford High School, Medford, Massachusetts, as teacher of Spanish, is in charge of the department of English and French. Miss Agnes Graham, a graduate of Bates College, is in charge of the Latin and History.

Last year, for the first time we started a prize speaking contest. The contestants were chosen from the entire school. The scheme was to allow every pupil a chance to compete. From the preliminary contests which were held on Friday mornings from September on, speakers for the final contest were chosen, the three assistant teachers acting as judges. The final contest took place in May before a good sized audience. The Academy Orchestra furnished music for the occasion; and there was singing by a chorus from the school. The first prize, a gold medal, was awarded by the judges, to Miss Dorothy Williams, a member of the Sophomore Class. The second prize, a silver medal, was awarded to Oscar M. Keene, a member of the Senior Class. I mention these facts in order to make them matters of record.

The first contest was seemingly such a success, that I am planning to hold a similar contest again this year; and the preliminary contests have been going on all of this year. The training in voice culture, and the training in self-possession, afforded by such an experiment as this, I believe can hardly be equalled elsewhere in the entire course.

Because of the interest and enthusiasm which accompanied the local contest we were able to send one boy, Horace Mitchell, Jr., to represent the school at the Lyford Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest, held under the auspices of Colby College, at Waterville, Maine. This to my mind is an excellent habit for us to get into; for it gives one boy each year a chance to get some first-hand information of a college, and of the ways of college boys; and may kindle in him that spark of ambition which will lead him on to something better than a high school education.

Last year's graduating class consisted of seven young men, and seven young women. Besides the fact that numerically it was a multiple of the perfect Biblical number, seven, this class was remarkable in the number who continued their education. Four of the boys are in college and another intends to enter next year. I know that some of the other boys of this class have ambitions toward college; but could not carry out their ambitions to a realization. this year, for various reasons. One girl is in Gorham Normal School, two are in business, and one is taking a post-graduate course at the Girls' Latin School, of Boston, Massachusetts. I think that this is a pretty good showing for no larger a school than ours.

This year's graduating class consists of six boys and eight girls. I know that quite a few of them intend to go to college. Perhaps one might be lead to think that I consider it to be the prime purpose of the Academy to fit for college. I do not. Its prime purpose it to fit for LIFE. But whenever a student goes from our school to college, my heart is made glad; for I know that he IS fitting, most admirably, for LIFE.

The program for the graduating exercises will be found near the end of this report.

For recommendations. I would urge the following: Some money should be spent upon the roof of the Academy building. Several slates are off; and each rain-storm comes through a little more than the one preceeding. Our beautiful hall is fast becoming ruined in its appearance. The bright work on the main floor would be much improved by a coat of varnish; and the walls and ceiling of the Commercial room and the History room need retouching. We are sadly in need of some curtains in the main study hall. So much for the needs of the building. I know that these things do not come especially in my province; and yet I feel it my duty to at least call your attention to them.

I want to publicly thank the townspeople for the generous amount of money raised for books and supplies for the Academy. With an overdraft of more than one hundred and fifty dollars for the year before, it left for this year about four hundred and fifty dollars. The town report will show just exactly how this was spent. All departments were benefited; the Science department probably receiving the lion's share. I am only hoping that this year again finds all who congregate at the polls, in a very generous mood. The Commercial department this time is in especial need. Our typewriters are old. Four of our machines have been in use here for more than ten years. They should be new every three years. We have bought one new machine this year with money which the students themselves raised. I wish that the appropriation could be enough this year in order that we might buy one or two new machines and exchange some of our old ones. We are also very much in need of an office file where catalogues of the various colleges, records, registers of each years work may be kept and in a manner suitable for ready reference. At present my desk serves not only in the capacity for which it was originally designed but as a final resting place for all these things. Hence, when a certain thing is wanted I must search it through. This I do not object to; but the desk is fast becoming filled up. So, if we may have the same amount of money this year as last, if this be not asking more than our share of your money, I will say that it would be greatly appreciated by us all; and your boys and girls receive the ultimate benefit.

One thing which I almost forgot to mention is the fact that last year, local merchants gave prizes of five dollars in gold to the students writing the best essay on the subject: "Benefits of the Army." Two of these prizes were for the Academy, and the other two were for the grade schools. At the Academy, the prizes were awarded to Miss Louise Sargent and to Franklin Billings.

Frederick Young of last year's Freshman class also received a prize of fifteen dollars for the best essay on "Household uses of Copper and its Chief Alloy, Brass". This prize was offered to students in High Schools and Academies in the United States. Young was the only student in any secondary school in Maine to receive a prize. I thought this worthy of record.

In closing, I want to thank the trustees for most hearty cooperation which they have given me in my work. I can truly say that in the hour of need I have never found them wanting. Yet more than on one occasion have we been all "weighed in the balances."

I thank the trustees for reelection; for complying with my many requests in various matters. Both myself and my teachers desire earnestly to merit the trust which this responsible position imposes upon us.

Respectfully submitted,

LEON P. SPINNEY.
